Are you feeling the nudge to serve as a leader at Gloria Dei? If so, consider becoming a candidate for Congregational Council. We are accepting names for candidates for our upcoming election at the annual meeting in November. Two members of Council have resigned for personal reasons, so in addition to the four seats we fill each year for three year terms, we have two seats open for partial terms. If interested in running for Church Council, please contact the church office for an application. If you have any questions about serving, feel free to speak with any current member of the Council. Their names and contact information is listed on our website.
