

GLORIA DEI CHURCH BYLAW CHANGE

- Article V, C12.01.01 Current; Any voting member of the congregation, except church staff and relatives (i.e spouse, children, parents) of the church staff may be elected to congregational council, subject only to the limitation on the length of continuous service permitted on the Congregational Council.

- Article V, C12.01.01 revision; Any voting member of the congregation, except individuals compensated by the church or related ministry and their relatives (i.e spouse, children, parents, in-laws), may be elected to congregational council, subject only to the limitation on the length of continuous service permitted on the Congregational Council.

Current Operating Decorum

Church compensated individuals, who are currently members of the Council, will not participate in council discussions or voting on financial and personnel issues related to their church duties. All related confidential discussions in Council will happen in separate executive session.
